SUBJECT: Feasibility study results for transforming the old Trios Hospital into a Behavioral Health Recovery Center.
FISCAL IMPACT: There is no impact to current expense.
BACKGROUND: On January 14, 2020 Gary Long with the Kennewick Public Hospital District (now known as the Two Rivers Health District) presented to the BOCC. In collaboration with the Benton Franklin Recovery Coalition they requested the County assist in paying for a part of a feasibility study to determine the financial and operational potential of transforming the old Trios Hospital building on Auburn street in Kennewick into a Behavioral Health Recovery Center that includes treatment for mental health, substance use disorders, crisis services, residential treatment, etc. making it a "one stop" treatment center. Franklin County agreed to assist with paying for the study and contributed $12,500.00. The feasibility study has been completed and the results will be presented to the BOCC.
RECOMMENDATION: No recommendation at this time. The purpose of this presentation is to provide the information from the feasibility study and answer any questions.
